Mr. Joe Frye, Jr.
North Carolina Coal Institute, Inc.
2509 Rosalind Avenue
Roanoke, VA 24014

Dear Mr. Frye:

On behalf of the faculty, staff, students, and administrators of Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College and the Southern West Virginia Community College Foundation Board of Directors, we thank the North Carolina Coal Institute (The Coal Institute) for its June 29, 2021 gift of $2,000.00, Check Number 1269. This contribution will be applied to the Excellence: 50 Years and Beyond Major Gifts Campaign and awarded to a student in a pre-engineering, mining engineering, mine management, or in a technical program related to mining as specified by The Coal Institute. The award will be distributed in the form of a scholarship for the 2021-2022 academic year by the Southern West Virginia Community College Foundation, Inc. Once selected, The Coal Institute will be notified of the name of the scholarship recipient.

Southern West Virginia Community College Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit organization and is tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. We are grateful to have this donation and verify that no goods or services were exchanged in return for the generous gift. This letter serves as a formal acknowledgment of the receipt of the gift for tax purposes.

The Coal Institute is making a difference in the lives of our students. We sincerely appreciate your continued commitment to the future of Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College and the quality of life we envision for our students and the people in our service region. Your support of this effort is essential to the success of the campaign and the future of the College.

Sincerely,

Rita G. Roberson
Director of Development
